SANTA FE — The New Mexico Legislative Council is soliciting applications to fill a vacancy on the State Investment Council.

The position to be filled is for one of the four public member positions appointed by the legislative council under a law approved in 2010. The person appointed by the legislative council must have at least 10 years' experience in the field of investment or finance and may not have had any contracts to do business with the State Investment Council, the Investment Office, the Office of the State Treasurer, the Educational Retirement Board, the Public Employees Retirement Association, the New Mexico Finance Authority or the State Board of Finance for two years prior to appointment. Because no more than two of the four members appointed by the legislative council may be members of the same political party, the person appointed to the vacancy must not be registered as a Democrat.

There are other provisions in the law with which applicants may wish to become familiar. Applicants may direct resumes or questions to:

Raúl E. Burciaga, Director
Legislative Council Service
411 State Capitol
